

I'D RATHER BE CRUISING!

So when I have homework, I don't waste time.

I log on to teacher-approved online resources—in the library, or from home 24/7.

I find what I need—fast! And, I know the content is reliable.

You can use these research databases, too. Just ask the librarian for instructions.

Hey—who has time to sort through the entire Web for help when the road is calling?

Not me!
